

10 YEARS OF EXCELLENT IDEAS

European Research Council (ERC) and its impact in Europe and the Czech Republic

European Research Council
Established by the European Commission

A regional ERC day organized by the Masaryk University and the Technology Centre of the Czech Academy of Sciences on the occasion of the 10 years anniversary of the European Research Council.

16. 3. 2017

Masaryk University Campus, Bohunice

Kamenice 753/5, Atrium CEITEC (A35), 625 00, Brno

12:30–13:00	Registration
13:00–13:10	Welcome Petr Dvořák, Vice-rector for research, Masaryk University Jiří Nantl, Director, CEITEC Masaryk University
13:10–13:50	ERC – Supporting 10 years of Excellence in Frontier Research Tomáš Jungwirth, ERC Scientific Council Member
13:50–14:15	Complementary funding schemes and support to the applicants Petra Perutková, Technology Centre of the Czech Academy of Sciences
14:15–14:45	How are ERC grants evaluated and how to write a good proposal? Zdeněk Strakoš, Charles University – PE6 Panel Chair and Evaluator
14:45–15:10	Coffee Break
15:10–16:45	Wonders of Science – My groundbreaking research and ERC’s impact on my career Moderator: Zdeněk Strakoš, Charles University Péter Szabó, Institute of Botany of the CAS, ERC Starting Grant Holder Michal Holčapek, University of Pardubice, ERC CZ Grant Holder Pavel Plevka, Masaryk University, ERC Starting Grant Holder Tomáš Sobotka, Austrian Academy of Sciences, ERC Starting Grant Holder
16:45	Discussion and closing of the event

Ida Součková Olšová, E: i.souckova@rect.muni.cz

Registration

